

[Lane, Anna Eggleston]

HENDERSON

Early Friday morning Anna Lane, wife of Charles Lane, passed on to the life beyond. She had been a long sufferer from the great white plague [tuberculosis] and her death was not unexpected. She leaves a husband, a son [William] and two sisters. The funeral service was held in the Universalist church Sunday at 1 p.m., Rev. William J. Metz, pastor of the Universalist church, of which she was a member, officiating. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers and the church was filled with friends who wished to pay a last tribute to one who held their love and respect by her unselfish, sympathetic life. She was laid at rest in Evergreen cemetery.
