Ferdinand A. Lane, who was born in South Rutland, a son of Zebina and Ruth Kelsey Lane, was a carriage and cabinet maker by trade. He was employed here by the old H. H. Babcock Carriage Manufacturing company, the old Unon Carriage and Gear company, and, finally the old Excelsior Carriage company. He died suddenly at the age of 62 years on Dec. 29, 1915, at the family home, then 658 Burchard street. Mrs. Lane thereafter lived with their son, David F., until she died Nov. 29, 1951, at the age of 91 years.
