

[Lane, Frank]

HENDERSON.

—Frank Lane, one of Henderson's prominent young farmers, passed away Sunday morning. He took a severe cold which brought on pneumonia and proved fatal in a week's time. His funeral was held from his late home Tuesday at 2 p.m., Rev. H. H. Niles [minister of the Universalist church] officiating. He leaves besides his wife and mother, two children, Bertha and Joshua, and one brother, Fred Lane of Belleville, and one sister, Mrs. M. Barthel of this village. He was a member of Henderson Grange, which sent flowers in recognition of the loss of their brother. Much sympathy is felt for the family, especially the sister, Mrs. M. Barthel, whose husband lies at the point of death. The interment was a Roberts Corners.
