

[Lathrop, Charles M.]

Charles M. Lathrop

Charles M. Lathrop died Sunday, August 18th, quite suddenly at the home of his son, Anderson Lathrop, who resides about a mile north of the village of Hartwick.

He was born December 22, 1839, at Plainfield and was a son of Anderson and Merinda (Keller) Lathrop. He was married to Valence Potter January 31, 1873, and followed agricultural life at Van Hornesville until a few years ago. He has since resided with his two children, Anderson Lathrop of Hartwick and Mrs. Fred Swartz of Iliion.

Mr. Lathrop is survived by his wife, son and daughter above mentioned and by five grandchildren, one of whom, Burton Lathrop, is serving with the colors in France.

The funeral was held Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the house. The services were conducted by the Rev. C. [Charles] Kramer of Cooperstown [pastor of the Universalist church]. Burial at Richfield Springs.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 23 Aug 1918

Transcribed on 28 Apr 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY