

[Laurence, Adaline Wilcox]

Mrs. Adaline Wilcox Laurence

Mrs. Adaline Wilcox Laurence died at Morris, on Thursday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Laurence was the widow of D. I. Laurence, her age was seventy-five years, and she is survived by two brothers, Ephraim Wilcox of Morris and John Wilcox of Canaan, Conn., and by one sister, Mrs. S. W. Murdock of Oneonta. An only daughter, Ada Laurence Palmer, died four years ago.

Mrs. Laurence was surrounded by the comforts of a pleasant home, the company and care of relatives and friends who loved her; she possessed abundant means to gratify her desires and to do good with, in which she delighted; and in the community she was held in the highest esteem. Her death is a cause for sorrow and keen regret. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, her pastor, Rev. F. [Frederick] G. Leonard [Universalist], officiating.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 2 Jul 1909

Transcribed on 5 Dec 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY