

[Law, Ruth Small]

Mrs. Ruth Law Dies

Mrs. Ruth Law, 74, of 38 Gouverneur St., widow of Stanley Law, died at 2 this morning in the Edward John Noble Hospital, where she had been two days.

The funeral will be [at] 2 p.m. Saturday at the Lawrence Funeral Home with Rev. Max Coots, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday.

Surviving are a foster son, Col. Walter Woods, (ret.), California; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Born in Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 21, 1896, a daughter of George and Stella Mull Small, she came to Canton at an early age. She was married to Stanley Law, who operated a farm on Gouverneur Street, Feb. 25, 1914. Mr. Law died April 17, 1959.

Mrs. Law was a member of Silas Wright Grange and of the New York State and National Holstein-Friesian Association.

Daily Times, Watertown NY, Thu. 9 Jul 1970

Transcribed on 25 Nov 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY