

[Lawrence, Dion Leonard]

Dion Leonard Lawrence

Dion Leonard Lawrence, a life resident of this village and vicinity, died Friday afternoon of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Cook, with whom he had resided. Death followed a heart illness of three months.

Funeral services were held from the Sloan parlors Monday at 2 p.m. Rev. L.E. Pitin, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated.

Mr. Lawrence was born in Morris, January 14, 1853, son of John B. and Calista (Eaton) Lawrence. He married May 10, 1881, Miss Cora E. Camp of Morris, whose death occurred several years ago [24 May 1936].

Mr. Lawrence spent his life in Morris and vicinity and was a man with wide acquaintance. He was a member of the Universalist church.

Surviving are a son, Claude Lawrence, and a daughter, Mrs. Gordon Mudge, both of Hadley, in addition to Mrs. Cook, and several grandchildren, to whom the sympathy of many friends will be extended.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 29 Jan 1943

Transcribed on 7 Apr 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY