

[Lee, Emma Baker]

MRS. JESSE D. LEE

The death of Mrs. Emma B. Lee, wife of Jesse D. Lee of Watertown, occurred in her home on March 3, following a short illness. She was in her sixty-ninth year. She was a native of Watertown and a graduate of Watertown Teachers' Training School. She taught in various schools of the city and at the time of her marriage, she was principal of the Meade Street School. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Burt B. Gibbs, who was then pastor of All Souls Universalist Church. She was a loyal member of this church and active in the Association of Universalist Women. Surviving Mrs. Lee are her husband and her daughter, Mrs. Richard P. Matthews; three sisters, Mrs. William N. Tufts, Mrs. C. Fred Van Amber and Mrs. Harry Westbrook [Marjorie] Reed, all of Watertown. Dr. Harold H. Niles, pastor, conducted the funeral service.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, April 1944

Transcribed on 17 Apr 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY