

[Legg, Cora Carpenter]

Cora Carpenter Legg

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Carpenter Legg, who died Sunday at her home, 37 East 69th street, New York city, after a long illness, were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, at the Church of the Divine Paternity [Fourth Universalist], Central Park West and 76th street. Burial was in Sleepy Hollow cemetery.

Her husband, George A. Legg, a member of the firm of George Legg & Sons, importers and manufacturers of flowers and feathers, and two daughters, Cora and Clara, and her mother, Mrs. Herbert S. Carpenter, survive. Mrs. Legg was a daughter of the late Herbert Sanford Carpenter, of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and a granddaughter of Francis Bicknell Carpenter, who painted a portrait of Abraham Lincoln and the Proclamation of Emancipation hanging in the Capitol at Washington.

Mrs. Legg was for many years on the board of Lincoln hospital, until it was taken over by the city. She was a member of the building committee of the Lincoln Hospital School for Nurses and served in the St. Mark's Hospital Social service. She belonged to the National Women's Republican club.
