

[Legg, Leonard C.]

OBITUARY

Died.—At Legg Corners, Feb. 24, 1909, in vicinity of Speedsville, Leonard C. Legg, aged 86 years.

He was a man of good judgment and fine principles, a great reader, and kept up with State and National affairs; was a parish member of the Speedsville Universalist Church. He leaves a wife [Eudora] with whom he had lived over 58 years, one daughter, Mrs. P. [Preston] C. [Velma] Meddaugh, and eight grandchildren [George, Velma, Symeria, Frank, Florence, James, Don and Sylvia]. Services by Rev. T. J. Farmer of Binghamton.

Two little boy babies were born to one of his grand-daughters the night of his funeral; one lived two days, the other five weeks. Sweet little things, they are now gaining strength in the presence of Jesus.

The Convention at Work, Herkimer NY, Apr. 1909
[a publication of the NY State Convention of Universalists]

Transcribed on 11 Aug 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY