CARL LEHMANN

[Dolgeville]. Carl Lehmann, one of the older residents in the village, passed away at this home Saturday afternoon after a short illness. He was born in Uhlenberg, Saxony, Germany, on March 4, 1846. He came to this country about 39 years ago when he settled in Dolgeville.

Shortly after he located in Dolgeville he opened up a small cigar manufacturing plant and later took his son, Oscar, in the business which was known for years as the Carl Lehmann & Son cigar factory. He was an active member of the old Dolgeville Maennerchor and of the Dolgeville Turnzerin.

Besides his wife [Clara] he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ernest [Anna] Fallier, of Dolgeville, and Mrs. Max [Minnie] Niepel, of Little Falls; one brother, Henry Lehmann, of Chicago, and one son, Oscar Lehmann, of Utica.

Funeral services were held at the home last evening at 7:30. Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton, pastor of the Universalist church officiated. This morning at 8 the remains will be taken to the Troy crematory.
