

[Lennox, James G.]

James Lennox Funeral Set for Friday

Funeral services for James G. Lennox, 82, president of Rochester Electrotpe and Engraving Company, who died yesterday (June 8, 1943), will be conducted Friday.

Mr. Lennox, who resided at 1333 Lake Ave., only recently had turned management of the firm, founded by his father in 1857, over to four sons who for years were his associates.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 3 p.m. in Hedges Memorial Chapel, 271 University, with the Rev. Weston A. Cate [of the Universalist church] and the Rev. Harold E. Nicely officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery at convenience of the family.

Mr. Lennox, a charter member of the old Rochester Bicycle Club, was a life member of Genesee Falls Lodge, F&AM; Rochester Consistory; Monroe Commandery, KT; Damascus Patrol; Lalla Rookh Grotto; Hamilton Chapter, RAM; Doric Council, R&SM; Rochester Court; Royal Order of Jesters, and the Rochester Lodge of Elks. He also was an honorary member of the Cordova Shrine Club, Cordova, Alaska.

He is survived by his wife, Louise Y. Lennox; five sons, Frederick F. Lennox, USAAF; Charles G., William C. and Walter S. Lennox, all members of the engraving firm, and George C. Lennox, vice president of Genesee Valley Trust Company; a daughter, Mrs. Lewis D. [Jessie] Saunders; three sisters, Miss Christian [sic] F. Lennox, Mrs. Grace Bulloch and Mrs. Helen Peoples, and 10 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.
