Walter Lennox Dies, Aged 63

Walter S. Lennox¹, 63, of 40 Winding Road, Pittsford, a former vice president of the old Rochester Electrotpe and Engraving Co., died yesterday following a heart attack at his home. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Genesee Hospital.

He had retired from business this year.

Born in Rochester, Mr. Lennox attended the city's public schools and the old Mohican Military Academy on the Hudson River.

For 35 years, he worked for Rochester Electrotpe, a firm founded by his grandfather but now part of Rochester Printing Plates, Inc.

Mr. Lennox is survived by his wife, Faith; a son, Capt. John F. Lennox of Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Lewis D. [Jessie] Saunders of Rochester, and three brothers, George, Fred, and William, all of Rochester.
