

[Lewis, Clara Chrysler]

MRS. CLARA LEWIS' DEATH SADDENS MANY FRIENDS

The members of the Universalist church of the Redeemer, as well as those of a large circle of friends, will be saddened at the death of Mrs. Clara Lewis, which occurred late last evening, at the old Lewis homestead, 506 Locust street. The end came after several weeks of suffering, through all of which her large faith and great courage were outstanding qualities.

Mrs. Lewis was a daughter of the late J. M. Chrysler, prominent in the history of this city, one of the founders and charter-members of the Universalist church, in which she also became an ardent worker. In her death the church and the community loses one who gave unstintingly of herself that others might have a ray of light and love shine in their lives.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon with services at 3:30 o'clock at the Universalist church. The burial will be in Cold Springs cemetery.

Union-Sun & Journal, Lockport NY, Sat. 26 Nov 1921

Transcribed on 25 Jul 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY