

[Lewis, Diana]

DEATHS.

In the town of Brighton, May 25th, of consumption, Mrs. DIANA LEWIS, aged 37 years, consort of Mr. Zachariah Lewis. Sister Lewis was a firm, unwavering believer in the ultimate glory and felicity of a ransomed world. Death had no terrors for her—she was calm, serene and composed, believing death to be (as it really is) a friend and not an enemy. She has left an affectionate husband and seven children to mourn their loss. May God bless each and every mourning relative. Her funeral took place on the 26th, when the consolations of the Gospel were tendered by the writer of this to the mourners and to an attentive congregation of sympathising friends and neighbors, from 2 Cor. v:20.
