

[Lewis, Morgan Q.]

North Stockholm

Mr. Morgan Q. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shaler A. Lewis, of North Stockholm, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. T. Satterwaite, (nee Jenny Lind Lewis) in Morris, Manitoba. The body was brought to his childhood home in Stockholm by his bereaved widow and arrived Thursday night, where his son, Nate H. Lewis, and daughter Jessie D. Lewis, who came from Boston Wednesday night, met their father and mother. His remains were met at the depot by his old friends and neighbors, who accompanied them to the home of his aged parents from where the funeral was held on Friday at one o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. E. B. Saunders, of the Universalist Church of Potsdam.

Mr. Lewis was born in Stockholm, where he lived until he went West, several years ago. He married Miss Sarah A. Bean of Norwood, and besides his widow he leaves three children, Nate H. and Jessie D. Lewis of Boston, and Mrs. S. T. Satterwaite of Morris, Manitoba; his aged parents, and brothers and sisters. He was a great sufferer for over five years, the last three of which he was perfectly helpless. He was taken to the home of his daughter over a year ago, where all that loving hands could do was done for his comfort, but for the past few months has begged to be taken to his childhood home to die, and when he realized that he would never live to reach there, he requested that he would be brought home to be laid beside his ancestors. The bereaved friends, especially his aged parents, have the sympathy of the entire community. He died just three years from the day of the death of his brother, Frank, who was also brought to his childhood home for burial. Just before he went away he called his son-in-law to his bedside and made preparations for his burial and left loving messages for his parents, and he has faithfully carried out his requests.

The bereaved friends [family] wish to extend their thanks to those who so kindly assisted them in this their hour of deep affliction.
