

[Light, Nellie Sena Lull]

Mrs. Charles A. Light

After a long period of invalidism, borne with the utmost courage, Mrs. Charles A. Light of Morris township, passed away at the Light home below the village, Wednesday night, at 11 o'clock, from pneumonia.

Nellie Sena Lull, one of the seven children of Jerome and Ann Eliza (Tobey) Lull, was born November 3, 1867, at the Lull homestead on the Morris-Gilbertsville state road, where she spent her girlhood. She married Charles A. Light of Morris [on] January 26, 1888. Mr. and Mrs. Light resided on the John Light farm, near Maple Grove, for a number of years. In 1900, they purchased the Frank Leonard property on the factory ground which they afterward made their home.

To them were born three children: Mrs. Perry Barton and Lewis Light of Morris, and Mrs. Floyd Hendrix of Rockdale. Mr. Light died March 15, 1929. Since his passing Mrs. Light has been tenderly cared for by her son, Lewis Light, and wife.

The deceased had been a loyal member of the Morris Universalist church for many years. However, her chief interest was in the home where she was a devoted wife and a kind and indulgent mother. Beloved by those in all walks of life in the community, she leaves a wide circle of friends who will cherish her memory.

Immediate surviving relatives are the three sons and daughters; two sisters, Mrs. Marion Aplin and Mrs. Hobart H. Cole of Morris; three brothers, Melvin Lull and William Lull of Syracuse, and Almon Lull of Morris; and five grandchildren, to all of whom sincere sympathy will be extended.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. F. [Frederick] G. Leonard, pastor of the Universalist church, were held at the Light residence Saturday afternoon at 1:30 with interment in the family plot on the new part of Hillington cemetery.—Star.
