

[Livermore, Newton J.]

BOUCKVILLE

Newton Livermore, for years a resident of this place, died at Faxton hospital, Utica, May 29th, where he had been a sufferer from blood poisoning. He was laid away in the family plot in Madison cemetery, following funeral services held from his late home here, Friday afternoon. Rev. L. C. Nichols, pastor of the [Universalist] Church of the Reconciliation, Utica, officiated. Mr. Livermore was a man of genial and kindly disposition, always willing to extend a courtesy or do a favor for a friend. He will be greatly missed by a host of friends. His immediate survivors are his wife [Elizabeth Parker Livermore]; a son, James Livermore [and] a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Brennan, both of this place; one sister, Mrs. Marian Heigh of Cleveland, O., and four grandchildren.

Madison County Leader and Observer, Morrisville NY, Thu. 7 Jun 1923

Transcribed on 11 Sep 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY