MEMORIAL TABLET FOR ALBERT LOBDELL

A memorial tablet was unveiled in the Universalist church at North Salem last Sunday afternoon with most impressive ceremonies. This tablet is in memory of Private Albert Lobdell, who was killed on the battle field, while in the service of his country, on September 29, 1918. A large congregation of friends of this most estimable young man was present, and deep, heartfelt solemnity of the hour showed the loss of a personal friend by all present.
