

[Lockwood, Amanda B.]

OBITUARY NOTES

Miss Amanda B. Lockwood, a resident of Brooklyn for fifty years, died yesterday at her home, 1387 Dean Street. She was born in Richmond, Ohio. Miss Lockwood was educated in Stamford, Conn., and settled in the Eastern District of Brooklyn a half century ago, where she was a member of the old Universalist Church. When the church moved to Flatbush Miss Lockwood also moved and continued her attendance.

New York Times, New York NY, 8 Aug 1914

Transcribed on 28 Jul 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY