JOHN H. LOCKWOOD

John H. Lockwood, sixty-five years old, of No. 395 Rugby Road, Brooklyn, dropped dead yesterday morning as he was about to step into an elevator in the Erie station of the Hudson tunnel, in Jersey City. Identification was established by a membership card of Brooklyn Lodge, No. 504, of the Royal Arcanum. His wife survives him. His only son died a few years ago. For many years Mr. Lockwood was the representative of R. Hoe & Co., and was known in nearly every newspaper plant in the country. He was a member of All Souls' Universalist Church, Brooklyn.
