

[Lum, Frances Jane "Jennie"]

OLD RESIDENT OF YATES IS DEAD

LYNDONVILLE, April 23.—The passing of Miss Jennie Lum occurred Wednesday morning after a week's illness in the home of her niece, Mrs. Charles O. Turner [at the age of 88 years].

Miss Lum was born in the town of Yates April 18, 1843, and was a life long resident of this vicinity.

She was a member of the Pullman Universalist church in Albion and formerly a school teacher.

Surviving are three nieces, Mrs. Charles O. Turner and Mrs. William Winkleman of Lyndonville and Mrs. M. B. Rappelye of Rochester, and two nephews, David Lum of Kenmore and George Lum of Niagara Falls.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of her niece, with whom she resided, with the Rev. L. H. Robinson of [the Universalist church] Albion officiating, assisted by the Rev. Frederick Mittlefehldt. Burial will be in Yates cemetery.
