GLEN LUMLEY DIES; VETERAN, PRESSMAN

Fort Plain—Glen E. Lumley, 48, of 16 Abbott St., a veteran of World War II, and pressman and compositor for the Fort Plain Courier-Standard, died yesterday in Little Falls Hospital where he had been a patient since Monday. He had suffered a heart attack.

Mr. Lumley saw 32 months of combat service in the South Pacific area during World War II, as a member of the 32nd Infantry Division and 126th Infantry Regiment. He was a staff sergeant in charge of a machine gun squad that saw action in New Guinea and Morotai, Dutch East Indies. He was twice wounded during combat on Layte and Luzon.

He was born Nov. 17, 1911, at Saltspringville, son of LeRoy and Lola Cramer Lumley. He attended Fort Plain High School and was employed by the Fort Plain Free Press until he entered military service.

Mr. Lumley was employed by the Courier-Standard since 1945. He was a member of the Universalist Church of the Messiah, [and] the Mohawk Valley Post, VFW.

He married Erma Sparks on June 29, 1946, in Fort Plain.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Susan; his mother, a brother, James E. Lumley, Hudson; a sister, Mrs. Reta Loyche, Schenectady, and three nephews.

The funeral will be at 2 Saturday from the Swartz Funeral Home, with the Rev. Raymond Scott, Universalist minister, officiating. Military rites will be conducted at the grave by VFW members. Coworkers at the Courier-Standard will serve as bearers.
