

[Luther, Marshall J.]

HERKIMER.

Marshall J. Luther died Saturday morning at his residence on South Washington street, following a long period of illness, due to a complication of diseases. He was born in the town of Salisbury 59 years ago, and since 1898 was a resident of Herkimer, having been for 19 years employed as foreman in the Horrocks Desk works. He was held in high esteem by all. One son, Martin Luther, is the only near survivor. The funeral services were held Monday morning, Rev C. [Charles] E. Bingham [Universalist] officiating. Interment was made in Salisbury.

Ilion News, Ilion NY, Thu. 16 Dec 1912

Transcribed on 9 Jan 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY