

[Mabee, Abbie Louise]

Mrs. Abbie Louise Mabee

Mrs. Abbie Louise Mabee, widow of the late William H. Mabee, who died recently in Saratoga, was for many years a resident of Little Falls, N.Y., and a devoted member of St. Paul's Universalist church, where the funeral was held, being conducted by the Rev. R. E. [Richard Eddy] Sykes, a former friend and pastor. Mrs. Mabee was always a liberal contributor to the church and a woman of high Christian character, talented and well read.

Her intelligence made her an entertaining conversationalist and her talent in this direction was supplemented by a broad kindness and charity that made her beloved by many friends. The deceased was a descendant of the Richard Hildreth family of Massachusetts. She is survived by a step daughter, Mrs. William O. Fiske, of Saratoga, and a sister, Mrs. M. J. Hawes, of Lowell, Mass.

Interment was in the family lot in this city.—Little Falls, Herkimer County News.
