

[MacBride, Thomas D.]

THOMAS D. MACBRIDE

The death of Thomas D. MacBride occurred in the University Hospital in Syracuse on January 30, following a serious decline in health of several months. Mr. MacBride was born in Kingston, Ontario, and had been a resident of Syracuse for a period of 51 years. He was employed as a pattern-maker by the Engelberg-Huller Co. of Syracuse for 44 years. He was a member of the Betts Memorial Universalist Church, active and loyal in all of its activities. For many years, he was the first to welcome the person entering this church and always it was a welcome from the heart. He was also a member of the Central City Lodge of Masons.

Dr. Ellsworth C. Reamon conducted the funeral service in the church on Saturday afternoon, February 1. Mr. MacBride is survived by his wife [Kathryn], a daughter, Miss Alice K. MacBride and two brothers, James and Charles MacBride of Rochester.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, February 1947

Transcribed on 22 May 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY