

[Maltby, Charles F.]

C. F. MALTBY, ARCHITECT, DIES AT 58

Charles F. Maltby, 58, an architect, died yesterday from a heart attack. He was stricken in the Kirby Office Equipment Company store, N. Main Street.

The Fire Department was called in an attempt to revive him. All efforts failed.

Mr. Maltby was born at Little Falls, son of Mrs. Charles F. Maltby who now lives in the Van Allen Nursing Home, Little Falls. He graduated in 1927 from the Pratt Institute, New York. He was employed in Syracuse and New York before coming here in 1933.

At that time, he joined Ross E. Sluyter in the firm Sluyter and Maltby. He opened his own office in 1944. He married [Mildred] Ruth Copithorn in 1931 in Syracuse.

Mr. Maltby was a member of the Herkimer Planning Board, a member and chaplain of the Elks Lodge; secretary of the Herkimer Kiwanis and a member of the Universalist Church.

He leaves his wife, his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Joseph (Virginia) Abromaitis, Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Wallace (Mertice) Gifford, Media, Pa.

The funeral will be at 11 tomorrow from the Fenner Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert W. Sterling, pastor of the St. Paul's Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Fairview Cemetery, Little Falls.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Fri. 25 Sep 1964