

[Manclow, Joseph]

JOSEPH MANCLOW

FORT PLAIN, Nov. 4—Joseph Manclow, aged 82 years, a lifelong resident of the town of Minden, died at the Amsterdam City hospital last night, where he had been a patient for four weeks. He underwent an operation there yesterday morning.

Mr. Manclow was born in the town of Minden, being a son of the late Joseph and Maria Moody Manclow. He was a carpenter by occupation and worked at his trade in this section for many years. He resided in the Brookman's Corners district until the death of his wife two years ago, when he came to Fort Plain to live with his son, Harold Manclow, on Reid street. He is survived by four sons, Harold and Arthur of this village and Earl and Irving of Brookman's Corners, and several grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at the home of Harold Manclow Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Rufus H. Dix of the Universalist church officiating. Interment in the Fort Plain cemetery.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Tue. 4 Nov 1930

Transcribed on 2 Mar 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY