

[Manley, Ward W.]

WARD W. MANLEY

The death of Ward W. Manley took place early Sunday morning in his home at 47 East Park St. He was born in Hamlin in 1862 and for nearly 20 years had resided in Albion and followed the trade of carpenter. He was a member of the Pullman [Memorial] Universalist Church.

Mr. Manley is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace Parmalee Manley; and an aunt, Mrs. Emma Hoag, and a cousin, William Manley, both of Hamlin.

A prayer service was held yesterday afternoon at the Merrill Funeral Home, followed by the funeral service at the Pullman Memorial [Universalist] Church. Burial was in Mt. Albion Cemetery.
