

[Marsh, Charles]

CHARLES MARSH TAKEN BY DEATH
Last Rites for Fort Plain Man Will Be Held Today from Daughter's Home

FORT PLAIN—Charles Marsh, 81, a lifelong resident of the Fort Plain-Nelliston section, died Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clarence [Minnie] Duggleby, Washington street, this village.

He was born September 4, 1854 in Nelliston, a son of Christian and Charlotte Newman Marsh.

He is survived by his widow [Eliza]; five daughters, Mrs. William [Delia] Errgong and Mrs. Abram J. [Elsie] Brand, Arlington, Mass.; Mrs. Florence Sparks, Ridgewood, N.J; Mrs. Clarence Duggleby, Fort Plain and Mrs. Dewey [Gladys] Kling, Richmond Hill, L.I.; two sons, George Marsh, Toledo, Ohio and Charles Marsh, Jr., Fonda; two brothers, William Marsh, Fort Plain and George Marsh of Binghamton; one sister, Mrs. Lillian Williams, Syracuse.

The funeral will be held today at 2:30 P.M. from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Duggleby, the Rev. G. [Gustav] Ulrich, pastor of the Fort Plain Universalist church, officiating. Interment will be in the Nelliston cemetery.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Tue. 31 Dec 1935

Transcribed on 24 Feb 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY