

[Marsh, Harriet Horton]

DEATHS.

In Nunda, Allegany [now Livingston] county, January 25th, Mrs. HAMED [Harriet] MARSH, wife of Sanger Marsh, and eldest daughter of Judge Elijah Horton, in the 25th year of her age. By this dispensation of Providence, a young husband has been called to drink the bitter cup of affliction, in a sorrowful manner. The holy marriage vow which he made at the sacred altar, has soon been performed. That union was soon dissolved by the angel of death, and he is left with a little infant, to mourn his early bereavement. Sister Marsh was a consistent believer in "the Great Salvation," for she adorned the doctrine which she professed, with a well ordered life. She was highly esteemed for her virtues, by those who were the best acquainted with her, and will long be remembered by the circle in which she moved. May all those afflicted, find consolation in the truth, that death has not separated her "from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." The consolation of the Gospel was offered to the mourners, and a large concourse of friends, on the 26th, at the Universalist church, by the writer.

Alanson Kelsey

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 10 Mar 1843
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 15 Sep 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY