

[Mason, Phebe]

DEATHS.

In the town of Skaneateles, on the 5th inst., Miss PHEBE, daughter of Mr. Isaac Mason, in the 21st year of her age, after a short sickness of nine days only. By the death of this amiable young lady the relations of the deceased have lost an affectionate daughter and sister. Her amiable qualities endeared her to all her acquaintance and those who best knew her will most regret her loss. She was a member of the Universalist society of this place; her life testified that her faith was an operative principle, and that here [e.g. on earth] she sojourned as in a strange land. Her sickness and death was marked with suitable expressions, and testimonials of resignation to the will of Heaven; and of her it may be said, she departed in the morning of life, and was gathered to her fathers in peace. The funeral services were attended by Br. J. [Jacob] Chase, and the consolations of the Gospel were tendered to the afflicted mourners and sympathizing friends, from Psalm xlvi:1.
