

[Mattison, Mary E. Davis]

MRS. ELMER MATTISON

Mrs. Mary E. Davis Mattison, 68, widow of Elmer R. Mattison, died at Massena Memorial Hospital at 10:10 o'clock Saturday morning, Aug. 21, 1965, where she had been a patient three weeks.

For the past two years she had resided with her son, Clifford Mattison, Route 2.

The body was brought to the Donaldson Funeral Home and on Sunday was taken to the Conrad Neilson Funeral Home in Dolgeville, where funeral services will be held with burial in the Tuttle Cemetery at Salisbury Center.

She was born at Stratford May 3, 1897, a daughter of Stephen and Estella Fish Davis. She attended Stratford schools and for many years was a seamstress at the Melrose Slipper Corp. in the Utica area. She married Mr. Mattison Dec. 6., 1914, and he died Apr. 11, 1962.

Surviving are four sons, Howard S. Mattison, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Floyd E. and Clifford B. Mattison, both of Massena, and Herbert G. Mattison, Sabina, O.; two daughters, Mrs. Donald (Inez) Emery, Lafayette, and Mrs. Frank (Estelle) Smith, Warwick; 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; seven brothers and sisters: Guy Davis, Dolgeville, Mrs. Herbert (Margaret) Nietzsche, St. Johnsville, Mrs. Charles (Dorothy) Knickerbocker, and Clifford Davis, both of Lafayette, Thomas Davis, Nedrow, Mrs. Cecil (Helen) Smith, New Jersey, Mrs. Mark (Edith) Ackles, Dolgeville.

She was a member of the Universalist Church at Salisbury Center and the VFW Auxiliary and Rebekahs at Dolgeville.

Massena Observer, Massena NY, Tue. 24 Aug 1965

Transcribed on 18 Jun 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY