FORMER FAIRFIELD RESIDENT IS DEAD

Little Falls, Aug. 23—Mrs. Lulu Timmerman Maxwell, wife of Abram Maxwell, died this morning at her home, 55 Church Street, from a complication of diseases with which she had been ill for the last two years.

She was born in Fairfield 49 years ago, a daughter of the late John and Jane Vedder Timmerman and had lived there most of her life.

Besides her husband she is survived by two sons by a former marriage, Leon Van Alstyne, a state trooper located at Canton, and Benjamin Van Alstyne, this city; a brother, Fred Timmerman, Solsville; and a sister, Mrs. Inez Smith, Los Angeles.

Private funeral will be held from the home at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Rev. C. A. Moulton, Dolgeville, officiating in the absence from the city of Rev. T. J. Menadue, pastor of the local Universalist Church of which the deceased was a member. Burial will be in Church Street Cemetery.
