ELIZABETH P. MAY DIES IN HOSPITAL

Miss Elizabeth P. May of the Hotel Granada, one of the oldest members of All Souls Universalist Church, died today in Peck Memorial Hospital after an illness of three weeks.

Miss May was born in Manhattan in 1849, the daughter of the late John and Mary A. May, but resided in Brooklyn the greater part of her life, where she was interested in philanthropic work for many years.

She is survived by a brother, John May; two nieces, Florence G. Brown and Ethel M. Schmidt, and two nephews, Raymond M. Gunnison and Foster Gunnison.

Services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the Fairchild Chapel, 86 Lefferts Place, with the Rev. Cornelius Greenway officiating. Burial will be private in Greenwood Cemetery.
