

[May, Mary Courser]

Macedon

Macedon, May 2—Mrs. Carl A. May passed away at her home here April 30, following a long illness. She was born in Macedon September 20, 1876, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roy Courser. On March 21, 1913, she was united in marriage to Carl May of Macedon. Her entire life has been spent in this village. She was an earnest worker in the Universalist church and as long as health permitted was a constant attendant. She was a charter member of Silver Sprig Rebekah Lodge, also a member of the local O.E.S. chapter. Her cheerful friendliness and genial disposition won her many friends and needless to say her loss will be keenly felt and her place hard to fill in the home and the church which she loved. She leaves her husband, C. A. May; one son, Harold May, a brother, Frank Courser, and a host of friends. Funeral from the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. John Bennett, minister of the Universalist church, officiating. Burial in Macedon cemetery.
