

[Maynard, Mary Hortense]

Mrs. M. Hortense Maynard

Mrs. Mary Hortense Maynard, widow of the late Thomas Maynard, died Wednesday morning in a nursing home at St. Petersburg, Fla. She had been in declining health for over a year. Her age was in the late 80's.

Mrs. Maynard was a former resident of Oneonta, where she taught school for some time. Later she came to Cooperstown and for years made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W.P.K. Fuller, the latter having been a first cousin. She was a devoted member of the Universalist church and a woman of fine attainments. The nearest surviving relatives are cousins among whom are Floyd Murdock of Toddsville and Mrs. William D. Lathrop of Penny Farms, Fla.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 30 May 1941

Transcribed on 27 Sep 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY