

[McGonegal, Fanny M.]

MRS FANNY M. MCGONAGLE

The death of Mrs. Fanny McGonagle¹ occurred in her home in Rochester on March 11, following a brief illness. For many years she was a member of the Universalist Church in this city, serving as a member of the Board of Trustees and treasurer of the Association of Universalist Women. She served the New York State Association of Universalist Women as treasurer and corresponding secretary. She was also active in the Rochester Council of Church Women. She is survived by her husband, Attorney Henry S. McGonagle.

The memorial service was conducted in her home on March 16 with Dr. William Wallace Rose of Lynn, Mass., and Dr. Donald B. F. Hoyt, minister of the Universalist Church in Rochester, as the officiating clergymen.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, April 1953
[a publication of the NY State Convention of Universalists]

Transcribed on 30 Jun 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY

¹ misspelled: should be McGonegal