

[McKee, William]

HENDERSON

—William McKee, a resident of this village, passed away very suddenly on Thursday of last week at the home of his step son, Leonard Welden, in Belleville, where he had been working with Mr. Welden on a drill. The remains were brought to Henderson on Friday and the funeral was held from the Universalist church Sunday at 2 p.m. Rev. Robinson conducted the service while the veterans of the G.A.R. took charge after the service. Mr. McKee was 68 years old and a veteran of the Civil war [Co. H, 94th N.Y.C.W.]. He was married three times. He leaves one son, Frank McKee, of this place. The interment was at Roberts Corners [in Evergreen Cemetery] beside the wife of his youth [Addie Chrisman, 1848-1900].
