

[McMillan, Anna E. Gordon]

MRS. ANNA G. McMILLAN

Mrs. Anna E. Gordon McMillan, 87, native and resident of Utica for more than 50 years, died Tuesday, May 14, 1940, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara E. Maus, Wollaston, Mass., after a short illness, according to word received by relatives here.

Mrs. McMillan was born in Utica, a daughter of Theodore and Mary Meacham Gordon. She was married to Charles McMillan, son of Andrew McMillan, one of Utica's first superintendents of schools. Mr. McMillan died over 50 years ago, and Mrs. McMillan had lived with her daughter for about 20 years. She was a member of the Church of the Reconciliation [Universalist] here.

Besides her daughter, she leaves a grandson, Donald Shaftoe, Wollaston; one great-grandchild; a brother, Charles M. Gordon, Westfield, N.J.; and several nephews, nieces and cousins in this vicinity.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon from the Lankton Funeral Parlors, 12 Steuben Park.
