

[Merry, David]

DEATHS.

In Sodus, Aug. 27, DAVID, youngest son of Leonard and Dorothy Merry, aged 2 years and 20 days. This lovely child was thrown from a carriage while the horses were under full motion, and struck instantly dead—the second accident which has happened in this family within one year past to lay low the object of parental affection. The consolations of the gospel of peace were tendered to the mourning relatives and sympathizing friends, from Matt. v.4, by
