

[Miller, Catherine Zoller]

Mrs. Peter Miller

Mrs. Catherine Zoller Miller, aged 87 years, widow of Peter Miller, died at her rooms in the Wagner block on Friday following an illness of several years' duration.

Mrs. Miller was the daughter of John I. Zoller and Eliza Sanders and she was born at the Zoller homestead in Minden on July 30, 1841. After her marriage to Peter Miller, they lived in a home opposite Mount Hope cemetery in Minden. From there, Mr. and Mrs. Miller moved to Lockport where Mr. Miller was engaged in the egg business for many years. In 1901, Mr. and Mrs. Miller moved to Fort Plain and took rooms in the New Grant hotel, where Mrs. Miller had made her home for many years. Mr. Miller died 15 years ago. Mrs. Miller was a member of Fort Plain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Study class. She was an attendant of the Universalist church.

Mrs. Miller is survived by a sister, Mrs. Martha Zoller Smith of Hallsville; six nephews, R. Z. Smith of Fort Plain, Claude Smith of Hallsville, Fred Smith of Lockport, Thomas Zoller, Abram Zoller [and] John I. Zoller of Little Falls; four nieces, Miss Eliza Zoller of Fort Plain, Mrs. Claude Smith of Hallsville, Miss Maude J. Zoller [and] Miss Zaida Zoller of Little Falls.

The funeral was held at the Universalist church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. R. H. Dix officiating. Interment was made in Mount Hope cemetery, Minden.
