

[Miller, Cora May]

DEATH OF MAY MILLER

Cora May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Miller, died at her home on Spring street last evening, in her 23d year. She is survived by her parents, two brothers, James L. and Mark, and one sister, Edna Pearl. She had been ill with bronchial consumption for about six months, and that was the cause of her death. The funeral will be private at the home of Mr. Miller, 224 Spring street.

Rome Semi-Weekly Citizen, Rome NY, Tue. 7 Sep 1897

OBITUARY.

The funeral of Cora May Miller, whose death was announced in Tuesday's Citizen, was held privately at the residence of her parents yesterday afternoon. May, by which name deceased was well known, was born in this city and had always resided here, and was a member of the Universalist church. She was an active member of the King's Daughters of that church. May had a very quiet and unassuming nature, and will be remembered for her kindness and sweet disposition. The mourning family are assured of the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Rome Semi-Weekly Citizen, Rome NY, Fri. 10 Sep 1897