

[Miller, Jeanette MacKenzie]

MRS. J. M. MILLER—

The death of Mrs. Jeanette MacKenzie Miller, widow of Jonas Miller, occurred at the home of her son, Irvin Miller, at Palatine Church yesterday afternoon after an illness of about two years. Mrs. Miller was born at Salisbury, Herkimer county, August 25, 1823, but practically all of her life was spent in the town of Minden and this vicinity. She was widely known and beloved by all with whom she was acquainted. Mrs. Miller was a member of the Universalist church in the town of Minden and its auxiliaries. She is survived by one daughter Mrs. Otto Fox of San Diego, Cal., and two sons, Irvin Miller of Palatine Church [and] Alton Miller of Fordsbush. The body was removed from the home of Mr. Irvin Miller last night, in charge of funeral director H. S. Van Antwerp, to the Miller home at Fordsbush, where the funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Herbert F. Moulton, pastor of the Church of the Messiah at Fort Plain officiating. The interment will be made at the Mount Hope cemetery at Fordsbush.
