

[Miller, Maria B. Converse]

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Maria B. Converse Miller died at her home in Fort Jackson, N. Y., Friday morning, November 27, 1896, after an illness of less than a week. She was born in Stockholm, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., September 7, 1830 and was united in marriage September 17, 1855, to Calvin Miller, who survives her, together with the four children born to them, one son and three daughters. She never joined any church, but from childhood enjoyed the Universalist faith. Her life was given up to her family and friends. Loved and respected by all who knew her, she will be greatly missed in the little place where she had lived so many years, but the greatest loss will be felt in the home made so lonely by her absence. The funeral service was held at her late residence, Saturday p.m., November 28, Rev. G. A. King, of Canton officiating.

Norwood News, Norwood NY, Tue. 15 Dec 1896

Transcribed on 29 Apr 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY