

[Miller, Peter]

Peter Miller

Peter Miller, a prominent resident of Fort Plain, died in his rooms at Hotel Burdick on New Year's night. His death was sudden and due to heart failure. The deceased was nearly 75 years of age and was born on the Miller farm in Upper Dutchtown of the town of Minden. His parents were Peter I. Miller and Christina Diefendorf. Forty-five years ago last Tuesday he married Miss Catherine Zoller, a daughter of the Hon. John I. Zoller. The deceased for a time was in the wholesale grocery business in Lockport. He is the last of a large family and leaves only his widow, nephews and nieces. Among the relatives are Mrs. Jacob Rice and daughter of Palatine Bridge.

The funeral of Mr. Miller was held yesterday and conducted by the Rev. G. [George] A. Gay, pastor of the Universalist church, of which the deceased was an earnest member.

Canajoharie Courier, Canajoharie NY, Tue. 6 Jan 1913

Transcribed on 1 Jan 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY