

[Misner, Paul]

DOLGEVILLE

—Paul Misner, a lifelong resident of this vicinity and a former local merchant, died Saturday at his home on Slawson street, due to a stroke of apoplexy. He had been ill since the previous Sunday. Mr. Misner was born in Emmonsburg August 25, 1854. He had been for the past quarter of a century a resident of this village, and for several years was engaged with his son in the grocery business on South Main street, under the firm name of Paul Misner & Son. He was a man of good character who had many friends in this vicinity, by whom his death will be mourned. He was a lover of outdoor life. Mr. Misner was married September 23, 1877, to Miss Emmaline Smith of Emmonsburg. His wife preceded him in death by exactly two months, having passed away on January 1. He leaves a daughter, Miss Carrie J. Misner of this village; three sons, Ray Misner of Lockport and Francis and Clarence of this place; and three brothers, Henry Misner of Poughkeepsie, Herman of Los Angeles and Frank of Little Falls. The funeral will be held from the late home at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton of the Universalist church officiating, and interment will be made in the local cemetery.

Journal and Courier, Little Falls NY, Tue. 4 Mar 1924

Transcribed on 21 Mar 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY