

[Mitchell, Walter C.]

W. C. Mitchell Dies

DEPAUVILLE—Walter C. Mitchell, 68, farmer in this locality all his life, died Aug. 31 at his home here. Mr. Mitchell had been an invalid for the past 15 years, suffering from multiple sclerosis.

The funeral was held Sept. 2 at 2:30 p.m. at the family home here, Rev. Harold H. Niles, pastor of All Soul's Universalist church, Watertown, officiating. Burial was in North Watertown cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Julia M. Mitchell, [and] one daughter, Mrs. Edward (Hilda) Wright, Watertown.

Mr. Mitchell was born Dec. 27, 1886, in the town of Pamelia, a son of Frank and Marion Cole Mitchell. On July 5, 1913, he married the former Miss Julia Moffett in the Universalist church, Watertown. He had lived all his life in this area, where he was employed as a farmer.

Thousand Islands Sun, Alexandria Bay NY, Thu. 8 Sep 1955

Transcribed on 28 Dec 2017 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY