

[Monroe, Lucia S.]

DEATHS.

In Camden, N.Y., Mrs. LUCIA S., wife of Ivers Monroe, Esq., aged 28 years. Thus have a husband and children been called to mourn the departure of a kind and affectionate wife and mother, and society of an excellent and virtuous member. May the great Head of the church universal, comfort the mourners and give them a strong faith in the reunion in the home above. Agreeably to the frequently expressed wish of Mrs. M. that a Universalist clergyman should preach the sermon at her decease, the writer was sent for, and he attended her funeral on the 8th inst., in the Methodist church in Camden, which was kindly opened for the occasion. Two clergymen, Rev. E. W. R. Allen, of the Episcopal Methodists, and Rev. Mr. Jenks, of the Wesleyan Methodists, in the true spirit of christianity, took seats in the desk, and assisted in the services.

J. A. A. [Austin]

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat. 13 May 1854
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 5 Jan 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY