Harrison Montague Passes in Florida

Harrison P. Montague, retired Rochester businessman, died yesterday (Jan. 23, 1953) in St. Petersburg, Fla., his Winter home since 1942. He was 78.

Mr. Montague at his retirement 11 years ago was treasurer of Connell & Dengler Machine Company, a firm no longer in existence here but once one of Rochester's best known concerns. He had been with the company since he came to Rochester in 1903. Mr. Harrison resided during each Summer in Canandaigua, often spending much time in Rochester since his retirement. He had long been active in First Universalist Church here.

He is survived by a son, Harrison Irwin Montague, and two grandchildren.
